Important Masters Degree Policies

- Six (6) transfer credits are normally allowed, but up to 12 may be allowed with prior approval. A maximum of 8 workshop credits are allowed. Courses with EEd/ScEd 5000 numbers will not be approved by the Graduate School.
- The Program of Study form should be approved by the Graduate School prior to 24 credits. Notify your advisor at the beginning of the semester you plan to complete. Your advisor will then submit a Plan C Completion of Requirements form to the School of Graduate Studies.
- Course substitutions require prior approval of advisor, and signed approvals should be kept on file; program changes are submitted to the Graduate Dean for approval.
- Students may meet the “Continuous Graduate Registration” requirement by paying a $100/semester fee.
- The M.Ed. degree should be completed within 6 years from the date of matriculation. Courses beyond the 8-year limit must be retaken. Course revalidation plans require written approval of the Dean for the School of Graduate Studies.
